THE 1952

CADUCEUS

YEARBOOK

OF THE

UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS

SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

LITTLE ROCK, ARKANSAS

DEDICATION

TO A NEW ERA OF ARKANSAS MEDICINE

When ground was broken for the new Medical Center at the beginning of the current school year, the hopes and dreams of many at last came into full fruition. Not only did this represent a great step forward in medical education, but the quality of medical care can now be advanced to a considerable degree. With added clinical and hospital facilities, together with increased production of physicians to serve the rural areas, our Medical School can now begin to assume a more real part of the medical load of our state.

New buildings alone, however, do not make a Medical Center. Antiquated methods of thought and instruction must be eliminated to keep pace with our building program. Already moves have been made in this direction with the new curriculum for the next school year.

We would urge the continued unity shown in the past by the responsible of Arkansas. With Government, Education and Medicine working together tor the benefit of all the people, then we have begun, as Dr. W. C. Langston has so ably expressed it, "a new era in Arkansas medicine."

FOREWORD

At least we can say that this year has been different. For some it was a challenging year, a year of great promise and great rewards. For others, especially some of the seniors, it was pure unadulterated hell. We can only hope at this time that they all came through, not unscathed, but came through nevertheless.

In presenting the 1952 Caduceus we hope that we have done so from the student's point of view. It is inevitable that mistakes would be made; for these the staff must take full responsibility and can only offer our humble apologies.

It has been a very real pleasure to serve you. We hope that the present issue meets with the same popular approval as its predecessors.

We are grateful to Dr. A. W. McCullough for his many helpful suggestions and encouragement throughout the year; for his continued interest in Student Publications over the years we owe an enormous debt. To Shrader Photographers, Greer Lile and Maurice Patton we are thankful for the excellent photography; without them the book obviously would not have been possible. For the original art work, we are indebted to Walter Guinee. We would urge your patronage of all firms and businesses that have used the Caduceus as an advertising medium. To Henington Publishing Company and Mr. Jim Case we are especially thankful for their very great patience.

Finally, we wish to express our appreciation to all of you who have given encouragement and moral support throughout the year. This is the best that we could do. We hope you like it.

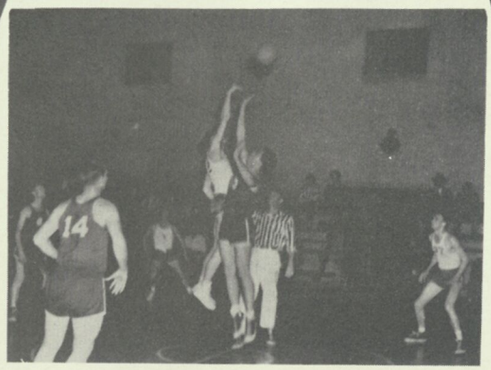
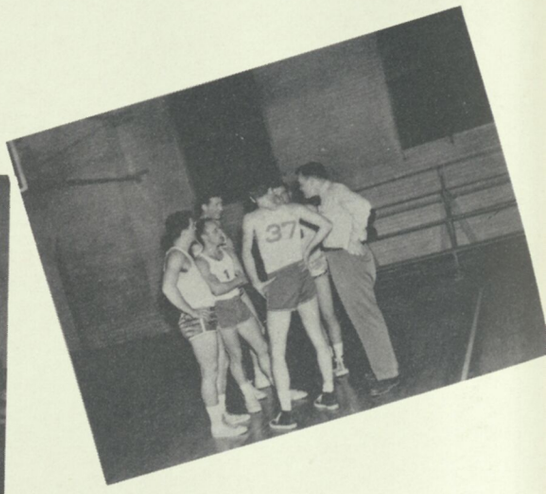
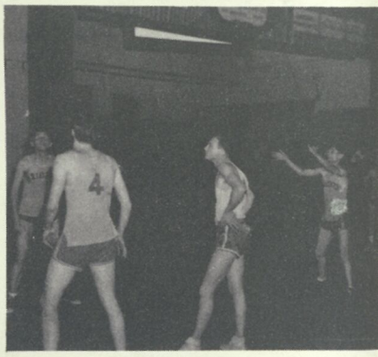
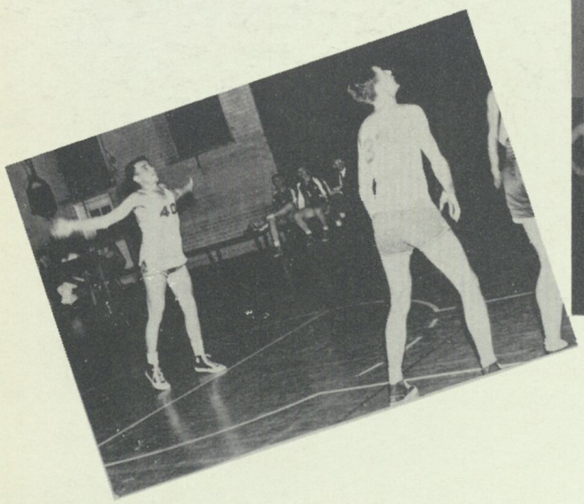
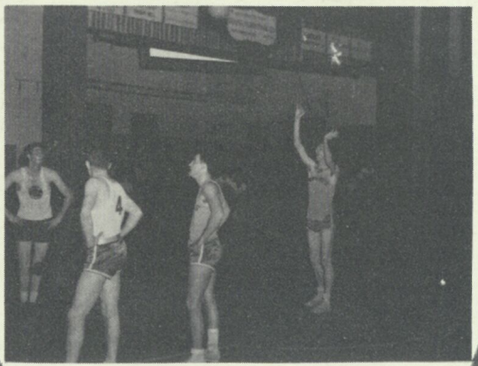
COMMERICAL LEAGUE CHAMPIONS

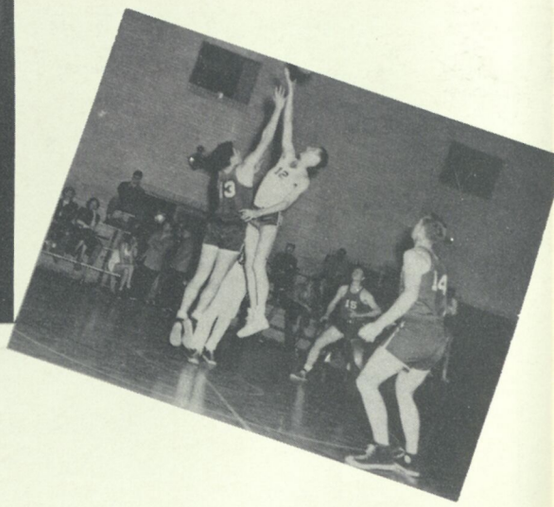












Dear Doctor,

Congratulations upon completion of your many years of hard work in preparation for your profession. Everyone knows that the way has been difficult and that diligence and steadfast pursuit of your aim has brought you to your goal—SUCCESS AWAITS YOU.

As you stand now on the threshold of a vast and beckoning career, entering an esteemed profession which is unlimited in its opportunities, we at Stovers extend to you our pledge of utmost support. We want you to feel that we have a personal interest in your problems as they may arise. Our offices, our salesmen and our knowledge of equipment and supplies shall be available to you at all times. Let us help you with any of your equiment problems or needs. You can assure yourself that your requests will receive our utmost careful and personal attention.

For twelve years we have had our doors open serving the medical profession in Arkansas and surrounding territories. The principles upon which this enterprise was predciated have been upheld through all the vicissitudes which assail every business venture. The primary tenet then and today is, "pleasing you keeps us in business." To that end we have worked hand in hand with the medical profession trying to better serve your needs.

It is because of this sincere effort that The Wm. Stover Co. has kept abreast of the situation—and in doing so we have been able to build one of the finest stores in the country.

We at Stover's therefore express our appreciation for your past patronage and offer our quality services in your future work. I salute you now—yours is a great privilege. May success and good cheer accompany you always.

Sincerely yours,

Wm. T. Stover, Pres.

"COLORTONE"

is what you have been waiting for Doctor!

Have you been reluctant to admit that your examining room equipment is now a little dated? . . . Have you been working in surroundings that never lift you up . . . always let you down? . . . Well, if you have, you may be like a lot of doctors who have been waiting for equipment that is somehow different, that is new.

COLORTONE IS DIFFERENT

Different in a delightful way, because Colortone retains all the richness of fine, selected wood grains, hand-finished to perfection by Hamilton craftsmen, but adds to this a wonderful warmth of color. Striking and distinctive, yet not at all intrusive, any of the four Colortone finishes blend beautifully with almost any color scheme . . . bring a soft, colorful note of life and graciousness to your offices.
